Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN)

The County of Volusia collects your social security number and may disclose your social security number to a commercial entity in order to comply with Section 118.07(5), Florida Statutes, for the following purposes, including but not limited to: tax reporting, and/or for use in identification of County vendors for any purpose allowed under law not limited by protection under state or federal privacy laws. Social security numbers are also used as a unique numeric identifier and may be used for verification or search purposes. The County may disclose social security numbers to another agency or governmental entity if it is necessary for the receiving agency or governmental agency to perform its duties and responsibilities.

Enter your TIN in the appropriate box. The TIN provided must match the name given on Line 1. For individuals, this is your social security number (SSN). For other entities, it is your employer identification number (EIN). Note, this is the TIN shown on your federal tax documents.
